

Utah's Medicaid Reform 1115 Demonstration

Annual Public Forum

January 2023

Utah's Medicaid Reform 1115 Demonstration is a statewide waiver that gives the Utah Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) federal authorization to administer specific medical programs and benefits that are not otherwise allowable under federal rules. The Demonstration was approved in February 2002 and implemented July 1, 2002. Generally, section 1115 Demonstrations are approved for an initial five-year period and can be extended in additional three to five year increments. Over the years, additional programs and benefits have been authorized under the demonstration. On June 30, 2021, Utah submitted a demonstration renewal request that was approved by CMS on June 30, 2022. With this renewal, the name of the demonstration is now the Utah Medicaid Reform 1115 Demonstration. This current demonstration has approval through June 30, 2027.
